

Jure Rakuljić

Captain

Jure has been in love with the sea since he was a little boy. Surrounded by his family's long maritime tradition, it seemed only natural that Jure would follow their suit and embark on his journey as captain of Olimp at age 26.

But what makes him so accomplished despite being young is the years of experience gained sailing their first ship every summer during high school and further honing those skills onboard two additional vessels over time. Now, this talented seafarer and master nautical engineer is setting ambitious courses toward the Adriatic horizons!

When he's not out sailing the high seas, Jure likes to take all that nature offers. He loves planning travels and making new memories with friends - kicking a soccer ball or watching a great movie!

Dominik Dujmović

Deckhand

Dominik is living the life of a true seafaring adventurer! Born in 2002 into Omiš, an aptly-named pirate town on the Croatian coast, he has been passionate about sailing since childhood. After completing technical school and becoming an electrical technician at just 18 years old, he quickly started honing his skills as a skipper before boarding his first ship two years later.

His ambition drove him forward - 6 incredible and adventurous years later, Dominik is now part of the prestigious Olympus crew!

As a young person, his ambition is to build a career in the yachting field; with that, his passion for progress and learning never ends. With exceptional English fluency under his belt, he's constantly discovering new places worldwide- when not relaxing by playing Play Station games, that is!

Damir Radak

Deckhand

Damir has been plying the seas for almost three decades since graduating high school in 1975.

With vast experience on long- and short-sailing ships and an ambitious attitude, his colleagues cite him as being exceptionally trustworthy and dependable – perfect when sailing with a team!

When not wielding sails or fishing boat lines, Damir can be found exploring hobbies like photography and movie watching.

Petar Laus

Bosun

Hailing from the beautiful small town of Čara on the island of Korčula sea has always been engrained in Peter's life. Be it a playful day as a child or doing chores as a teen, the sea was always part of every task while growing up, so it was only natural to partake in the seafaring profession.

With 17 years of experience on ship cruises and before that sailing the high seas on a tank ship, Peter has experienced a lot, and He's more than happy to share a story or two. With such great experience, there isn't a part of the ship or a task at sea Peter isn't accustomed to, so having him on a vessel radiates dependability and stability.

While not at the sea, nature is Peter's calling. Going on a hike or tending to a big family orchard charges his batteries.

Luka Rakuljić

Deckhand

Luka is an enthusiastic and ambitious 18-year-old sailor working on the Olimp. From a young age, Luka envisioned a career at sea, a passion strongly influenced by his older brother, Jure, who is the ship's captain. Under Jure's mentorship, Luka is gaining invaluable experience and knowledge, with the aspiration of becoming a captain himself in the future.

In October 2024, Luka will embark on a new chapter as he begins his first year of college. There, he will study to become a captain. This academic pursuit aligns perfectly with his career goals and passion for the maritime world.

Outside of his professional aspirations, Luka enjoys a variety of hobbies. He is an avid basketball player, enjoys traveling to new and exciting destinations, and has a keen interest in collecting sneakers. These hobbies provide a well-rounded balance to his life, allowing him to relax and have fun when he is not at sea.

Luka is dedicated to ensuring that every guest on the Olimp has an unforgettable experience. He looks forward to creating lasting memories, exploring new places, and having a great time. His youthful energy and dedication make him a valuable crew member, and he is eager to share his journey and adventures with those on board.

Stella Roso

Chief Steward

Stella is a passionate and dedicated professional who is deeply committed to her career. With a Bachelor's degree in film editing, she excels at working within a team and finds great joy in collaborative environments. Her role allows her to showcase her creativity while maintaining high organization and attention to detail.

Stella doesn't just relax; she actively engages in activities that help her stay balanced and energized. She enjoys immersing herself in books, taking long walks with her headphones, and engaging in quick workout sessions. Stella is a natural people person, thriving on the opportunity to meet new individuals.

This aspect of her personality makes her well-suited for the waitress position on board, where she can interact with diverse groups of people. Her exceptional communication skills are a significant asset, enabling her to drive better results in the customer service industry. She understands that effective communication is critical to delivering excellent service and creating positive experiences for others.

Petra Erceg

Stewardess

Petra, born in the continental part of Croatia, replaced the green plains with the sea, growing up in Zadar from a young age.

Bachelor of Culture and Tourism and Master of Journalism and Public Relations, started working on yachts during her studies and since then has been sailing.

This 26-year-old tried her hand in the media world as a radio and TV presenter, but her love for the sea prevailed.

She is no stranger to work, considering that some members of her family deals with boats and nautical tourism. What she especially likes about this job is the dynamism, meeting new people and waking up every day in a new place.

A true adventurer by nature, always ready for new challenges and tasks, opened to new experiences and getting to know new people and places which makes her an easy-going person but very dedicated to her job as a crew member.

In her free time, she enjoys watching the sunsets, hanging out with friends and planning travels.

Boris Orlović

Steward

Boris Orlović is a dynamic individual who thrives on challenges, introductions, and adventures. He finds his ideal environment in a workplace on a ship, where these elements come together seamlessly.

Working on a boat allows Boris to meet people from various countries, fostering new friendships and creating unique adventures.

In his spare time, Boris engages in tattooing, a craft that allows him to express his creativity and precision. He is also dedicated to training, maintaining his physical fitness, and embracing other similar activities that keep him active and inspired. Boris's adventurous spirit and love for meeting new people make him a valuable asset in any setting that values diversity and dynamic interactions.

Stipe Granić

Chef

Stipe, the chef of Olimp yacht, knows that love truly comes through the stomach!

Born on October 29, 1978, in Split, after completing elementary school, he enrolled in high school to become a chef and continues to progress in his career.

He has been pampering guests' palates for over two decades and isn't slowing down anytime soon. A true culinary master with an unquenchable appetite to learn new skills and take his talent to new heights - Stipe ensures every guest's experience on board is nothing short of extraordinary.

On top of that, he also speaks both English & German fluently - and his friendly personality will keep you smiling during your entire experience aboard this yacht.

Josip Božić- Bakušić

Sous Chef

Josip Božić-Bakušić embarked on what was initially meant to be a summer job, but it evolved into a three-year working experience in the yachting industry.

Josip has tried his hand at various positions throughout these years, each contributing to his diverse skill set. This year, he is focused on sharpening his cooking skills alongside the chef, further expanding his expertise.

At 27 years old, Josip is an adventurer at heart. He indulges his passion for travel and exploration when not sailing, continually seeking new experiences and destinations. His love for the arts often leads him to art exhibitions and theater shows, where he can appreciate and immerse himself in creative expressions.

Always planning his next adventure, Josip is a dynamic individual who thrives on discovering new horizons and embracing the richness of diverse cultural experiences. His journey in the yachting industry and his varied interests make him a well-rounded and intriguing person, always ready for the next chapter in his life.